L'Nayim Shuman-Austin graduated summa cum laude from Seattle University School of Law in 2000, where she was a lead article editor and published author on the Seattle University Law Review. Ms. Shuman-Austin has been a member of the Washington State Bar Association since 2000. Before joining the law firm in 2006, Ms. Shuman-Austin was a law clerk at the Washington State Court of Appeals, Division One.

Ms. Shuman-Austin has transactional, litigation, mediation, and appellate experience. Her practice areas include real estate law, real property disputes, landlord-tenant, condominium associations, land-use and zoning decisions, and employment law. Ms. Shuman-Austin is approved as a continuing education instructor for real estate licensees by the Washington Department of Licensing and regularly teaches classes for real estate professionals.

Ms. Shuman-Austin has also been active in the local legal community and is a volunteer attorney with King County Bar Association. She was a board member of both Washington Women Lawyers and its King County chapter, serving as the KCWWL president in 2004. She was selected as the 2005 "Mentor of the Year" by Seattle University's Women's Law Caucus and received the 2006 "Volunteer Attorney of the Year" from King County Bar Association.

When not in the office, Ms. Shuman-Austin enjoys biking, reading and spending time with her husband and one-year-old son in the beautiful Pacific Northwest outdoors.
