Over 18 years as one of the Eastside's top real estate agents. Eastside native - born and raised in the Bellevue suburb of Eastgate. Graduate - Newport High School (1981); University of Washington (1985) BA Finance; University of Southern California (1988) MBA Marketing / Real Estate.

Eastside Native

As an Eastside native, Rodney is intimately familiar with the regions exceptional attributes and the area's unique features. Inside knowledge that you'll only get with a lifelong Eastsider. With a proven track record of success and experience selling a vast variety of properties; ranging from condominiums, individual lots, entire subdivisions to waterfront estates, you'll see why Rodney has built his business on referrals, serving multiple generations for entire families.

Active Community Member

On a personal note, Rodney lives in Medina with his wife of 18 years Debbie , and their two incredible children, Nicole and Dylan. When not working, Rodney enjoys exercising, mountain climbing, and golf. Rodney has run three marathons (Seattle, Tri-Cities, and San Francisco) and numerous half marathons. Rodney has climbed all five volcanic peaks in Washington state (Mt. Rainier, Mt. Baker, Mt. Adams, Mt. St Helens, and Glacier Peak). As an active community member, Rodney has represented the Eastside in the Washington State Legislature for the past 6 years, currently serving as the areas State Senator. Rodney has focused his legislative priorities around providing every student a world-class education, from preschool to higher education, to lifelong learning opportunities.
